Definitions: (For more information, review the 990 Pro Forma Glossary or download the Form 990 Instructions at <http://www.irs.gov/pub/irs-pdf/i990.pdf>.)

Member of the governing body: A person who serves on an organization's governing body, including a director or trustee, but not if the person lacks voting power.

Employee: Any individual who, under the usual common law rules applicable in determining the employer-employee relationship, has the status of an employee, and any other individual who is treated as an employee for federal employment tax purposes under section 3121(d).

Director or trustee: A member of the organization's governing body at any time during the tax year, but only if the member has any voting rights. A member of an advisory board that does not exercise any governance authority over the organization is not considered a director or trustee.

Voting Member: A member of the organization's governing body with power to vote on all matters that may come before the governing body (other than a conflict of interest that disqualifies the member from voting).

Independent Voting Member: An Independent Voting Member is a member of the governing body with voting power is considered "independent" only if the member, or any family member of the member, was not compensated as an officer or employee by the organization, or by a related organization, or by an independent contractor of the organization.

Officer: A person elected or appointed to manage the organization's daily operations at any time during the tax year, such as a president, vice-president, secretary, treasurer, and, in some cases, Board Chair. The officers of an organization are determined by reference to its organizing document, bylaws, or resolutions of its governing body, or as otherwise designated consistent with state law, but at a minimum include those officers required by applicable state law. For purposes of Form 990, treat the organization's top management official and top financial official as officers.

Related organization: An organization, including a nonprofit organization, a stock corporation, a partnership or limited liability company, a trust, and a governmental unit or other government entity, that stands in one or more of the following relationships to the filing organization at any time during the tax year. 1) Parent: an organization that controls the filing organization; 2) Subsidiary: an organization controlled by the filing organization; 3) Brother/Sister: an organization controlled by the same person or persons that control the filing organization; 4) Supporting/Supported: an organization that is organized and operated exclusively to support the filing organization.

Top management official: A person who has ultimate responsibility for implementing the decisions of the organization's governing body or for supervising the management, administration, or operation of the organization (for example, the organization's president, CEO or executive director).

Independent contractor: An organization that has a business relationship with the organization but is not a Related Organization.

Top financial official: The person who has ultimate responsibility for managing the finances of the organization, for example, the treasurer or chief financial officer.
