Responsibilities for adopting an MSSPA equine

I hereby acknowledge receipt from you of the animal described above. I appreciate that you make no warranty in regard to it, whether as to ownership, condition, temperament, or otherwise. I understand that there is always some risk of injury from any animal, and I assume that risk. In consideration of this agreement to adopt an animal, I hereby release MSSPA, and its agents and employees, from any claim for negligence, gross or otherwise, direct or indirect, which relates to the animal. If at any time I desire to relinquish custody, or the MSSPA demands its return for any reason, I agree to return the animal to the MSSPA, making no charges of any character for licensing, care, food, or other service or thing. I authorize the MSSPA to take back the animal whether by entering on my property or otherwise, if I do not promptly return the animal to the MSSPA after the MSSPA demands its return, or if the MSSPA finds it necessary to take the animal back without prior demand for any reason. I shall personally be responsible for the humane care and control of the animal and your agent shall be allowed to see it at any time.

- Any individual or organization in possession of the equine as of the date of the agreement and any time thereafter is bound not to sell the equine at auction for slaughter or allow the equine to be sold, transferred, released, or otherwise placed into possession of any person or organization that will cause or allow the equine to be sold at auction for slaughter.
- The Equine may not be sold, leased, traded, given away, or otherwise rehomed without the written permission of the MSSPA (any future adopter will be required to sign a new adoption agreement).
- The equine may not be moved to a new property or boarding facility without prior notice to the MSSPA.
- MSSPA must be notified prior to any scheduled euthanasias, unless an emergency.
