

WASHINGTON INTERNATIONAL HORSE SHOW

2022 HONOR & SERVICE AWARD
Presented by EQUUS Foundation

The WIHS Honor and Service Award presented by EQUUS Foundation, will recognize a horse, individual or organization each year that best demonstrates the values of honor and service in their community.

The WIHS Honor and Service was created in 2013 to recognize and award a recipient who demonstrates the values of honor and service through the love of horses. The Honor & Service Award recognizes a horse, individual, or organization that best demonstrates the values of honor and service as embodied by the awards inspiration, Klinger. Klinger, a member of the Caisson platoon of the 3rd United States Infantry (The Old Guard), was the inspiration of the award and its first recipient.

Nomination Period: August 15th – September 16th, 2022

Nominations must be received by Friday, September 16, 2022

The award recipient will be notified in early October and will be honored at WIHS in Upper Marlboro, MD during an award presentation Friday, October 28, 2022. The award recipient may select an equine charity on the Equine Welfare Network of the EQUUS Foundation to receive a $1,500 grant from the EQUUS Foundation.
